I'm a Computer Science student at Vistula University in Warsaw. I study on a weekend basis, which makes me available and willing to work full-time.

I focus on my goals and development, that's why I willingly take up challenges and learn quickly. I'm looking for a job as a Junior Frontend/Web Developer in company which will allow me to improve my web development skills.

PROJECTS

JobFinder App:

React application with Firebase authentication. It allows users to view job offers fetched from TheMuse API and filter them through the search bar and by experience level. Job offers are divided into pages with pagination. There's the possibility to expand the listing to view the description by clicking on it.

Portfolio Website:

My personal portfolio with dark and light theme - Its main purpose is to introduce myself, however building it was a great opportunity to get more comfortable with React and learn Sass (SCSS).
